Mr. Simon Suen, JP
Doctor of Social Sciences, honoris causa

Currently the Chairman of SML Group, Mr. Simon Suen is a global entrepreneur who possesses astute vision, a keen sense social responsibility and dedication to the cause of promoting Chinese culture. Founded in 1985, SML Group has maintained an aggressive momentum of expansion in many areas of label production and is now a world market leader in terms of production scale and product utility. It manages 16 manufacturers spread over 30 countries, with a staff of over 5,000, providing one-stop global labelling services for the world’s top fashion brands and the largest retailers. Mr. Suen boasts an advanced and unique management philosophy which is guided by a sense of history, a clear purpose and profound creativity, and ties wealth creation and talent cultivation to social advancement.

Mr. Suen is deeply inspired by the master scholar Professor Jao Tsung-i and has taken it upon himself to promote Chinese cultural traditions. He has helped found and later became the Founding President and Chairman of the Jao Tsung-I Petite Ecole Fan Club, and has made generous donations to support cultural development on the Mainland. Mr. Suen is a firm believer in giving back to the society. He has always been committed to charitable causes and has donated generously in many instances to areas such as health, education, youth development, community infrastructure and disaster relief. He also serves the society in various capacities, including as the Honorary Vice President of the Chinese Association of Museums, the Vice President of the Scout Association of Hong Kong etc. Mr. Suen was named Honorary Citizen of Dongguan in recognition of his notable contributions to his hometown Dongguan. In 2012, he was also conferred an Honorary University Fellowship by The University of Hong Kong.

Mr. Suen is a staunch supporter of HKBU’s Whole Person Education and its academic and research development. He has donated to set up a scholarship at the University and support the School of Business and the School of Communication in organising academic activities. In addition, he also pledged a donation of HK$30 million towards the founding of the Mr. Simon Suen and Mrs. Mary Suen Sino-Humanitas Institute to contribute to the research and promotion of Chinese culture.

In lieu of floral gifts, donations to the Hong Kong Baptist University Foundation are welcome.
